

YOURS 2022

YOUng ResearcherS Conference 2022

May 25, 2022, Belgrade Fair

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

YOURS 2022 Conference primary goal is to bring together Young Researchers in order to

- hear about what others in their field and related disciplines are doing,
- connect with colleagues from different institutions and
- learn about new research, tools, and techniques relevant to their work

The applicant younger than 35 years must be the first author of the scientific paper. Co-authors can be their mentors or senior colleagues.

Application should be sent to office@jaes-series.com no later than May 18th containing title, short summary of the article (abstract) followed by names and affiliations of all contributing authors. Based on the abstract, papers will be selected for Conference presentation.

After the conference, the authors, taking into account the proposals, criticisms and suggestions of those present at the conference, write a structured paper for revision and possible publication in Journal of Applied Engineering Science. Papers must be in English, free of typing errors with recommended length up to 10 pages. Every paper submitted will be considered only if the results contained in the paper are not already published or in the process of reviewing or publishing elsewhere. Details regarding structure and format of the paper can be found at
